

Happy Martin Luther King Jr. Day!

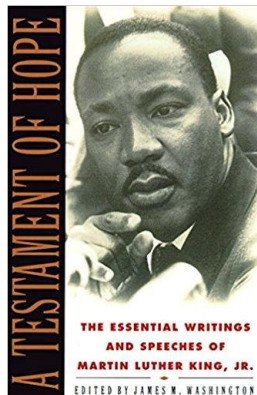

Using Stanford University's voluminous collection of archival material, including previously unpublished writings, interviews, recordings, and correspondence, King scholar Clayborne Carson has constructed a remarkable first-person account of Dr. King's extraordinary life. (978-0446676502)

In King's fourth and final book, he writes of hope, civil rights, and peace, all while in isolation. While this book eventually fell out of print for a period of time, it returned with an added introduction by King's friend Vincent Gordon Harding, and a brand new forward by Coretta Scott King. (978-0807000670)

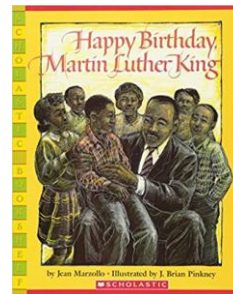

A Testament of Hope contains Martin Luther King, Jr.'s essential thoughts on nonviolence, social policy, integration, black nationalism, the ethics of love and hope, and more. Not only a collection of his speeches and interviews, this book also has autobiographical accounts. (978-0060646912)

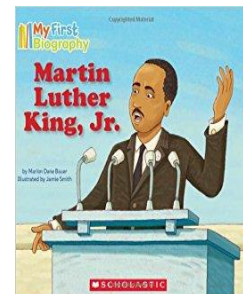

Minister, Activist, Father, Inspiration to All

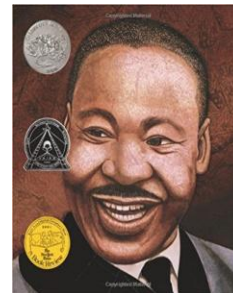

A Civil Rights Activist until his passing in 1968, Doctor King is an inspiration to many. As we celebrate his birthday this Monday, perhaps allow your students to enjoy and reflect on his writings and his life with books from Books 'En More.

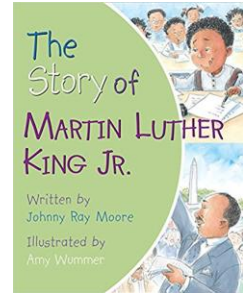

(978-0439782241)

(978-0545142335)

(978-1423106357)

(978-0824919740)

1400 240th Street Harbor City, CA 90710
P: (424)263-5959 | F: (310)861-1872
sales@booksenmore.com

Didn't find what you're looking for? Call us at (424)263-5959
"Tell us what you need and we'll get it for you!"

*Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that.
Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that*

--Martin Luther King Jr.